Global Business Partner & Provider

Greeting & Company Overview

Hello, this is Metanic Co., Ltd., a specialized electronic components distribution company. Since our incorporation in 2010, we have been swiftly adapting and growing in response to the rapid changes in the electronics industry.

Drawing on our experience and expertise, we are dedicated to ensuring customer satisfaction and trust by delivering the best possible service. We meticulously select purchasing partners and products both domestically and internationally, following strict standards and systematic approaches. Through competitive pricing, fast delivery, and top-notch quality, we strive to become the preferred collaborative partner for our customers.

With the belief that our success is intertwined with our customers' success, we endeavor to be a companion in achievement. Your continued interest and support are greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Distribution Process

Metanic Co., Ltd. continuously monitors customer order requirements, lead times, pricing, and market conditions, engaging in ongoing communication with customers.

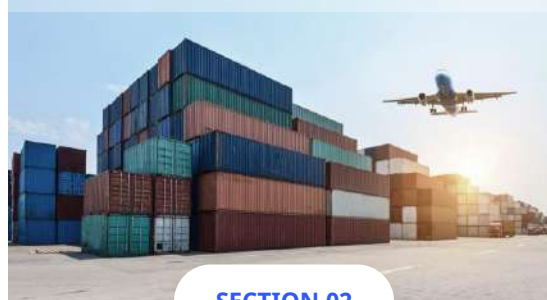

Through inventory management, distributor COC supply, and global sourcing, we provide Turn-Key solutions to meet our customers' needs.

SECTION 01

Customer

- Swift and efficient lead times and issue resolution
- Bulk material supply in alignment with customer production schedules
- Rationalized operation of customer's human resources, logistics, and inventory management
- Problem-solving through communication with customers
- Competitive pricing through proactive inventory procurement

SECTION 02

Market

- Years of experience and expertise in electronic components, secured partnerships enable smooth sourcing of shortage and discontinued materials
- Provision of information and issue response through global market analysis including business assessments and SWOT analysis
- Inventory sales through distribution stores and website operation

Product

- Preventive quality assurance through vendor direct procurement and distributor parts supply
- Special storage for moisture and temperature-sensitive components to ensure safety
- LOT management and COC provision through material management system

Intelligent Memory

Company name	Intelligent Memory
Business Summary	Intelligent Memory has been developing memory products for demanding industrial applications since 1991 (formerly known as Pacific Force Technology Limited until 2013). Operating out of Germany, our extensive product portfolio includes DRAM components, DRAM modules, and managed NAND flash. Our DRAM components range from SDRAM to LPDDR4(x), while our DRAM modules cover SDRAM through DDR5. Our diverse managed NAND flash products are suitable for both commercial and industrial applications. All Intelligent Memory solutions are designed to meet the industry's requirements for quality, reliability, longevity, and long-term availability.

Company name

RENHOTECH

Business Summary

Renhotec Group was established in May 2008 and has been specializing in the manufacturing and exporting of various electronic connectors for over 15 years. Renhotec produces everything from common connectors used in PCs to high-quality, waterproof connectors, as well as connectors, adapters, and cable assemblies used in the electric vehicle (EV) industry. Renhotec is known as one of China's top electronic connector manufacturers, offering competitive prices since all products are produced in-house at their own factory. Renhotec serves major clients such as Samsung, JABIL, TESLA, and more. The main industries covered by Renhotec include the telecommunications industry, PC and consumer goods industry, automotive industry, renewable energy applications, aerospace and defense, among others.
